

FLOLA L. SHEPARD Languages and Linguistics

George Washington University, M.A.; Anna Ottendorfer Memorial Fellow in Germanic Studies, University of Vienna.

Taught at Ohio State University, Bryn Mawr College, Morehead (Ky.) State Teachers College, Olivet College. Black Mountain College since 1949.

VICTOR SPRAGUE Biology

Southern Illinois Teachers College, B.Ed.; graduate work, University of California; University of Illinois, M.S., Ph.D. Taught in Illinois Public Schools, at Marshall College, Louisiana State University, Young Harris College. Army during World War II; Chief, Parasitology Division, Project 9, Texas A and M Research Foundation. Publications on Gregarinida, Microsporidia, Haplosporidia, Myxosporidia.

Black Mountain College since 1951.

STEFAN WOLFE Music

Graduate, State Musical Academy, Berlin. Studied with Anton Webern.

Taught at Palestine Conservatory and conducted orchestra of Palestine Broadcasting Company; taught composition in Philadelphia and New York schools; musical director and teacher of advanced composition, Philadelphia Musical Academy, 1949-1952; studio-teacher of composition, Columbia University.

Works include: songs, sonatas for oboe and for violin; works for the piano, including the Seven Pieces for Three Pianos which was given its premiere at Yale University in March, 1951; the ballet suite The Man from Midian which was performed by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Dimitri Mitropoulos; and the Sonata for Violin and Piano, recorded, which won Academy award.

Black Mountain College since summer, 1952.

In addition to the regular Faculty as listed above, Black Mountain College has the following instructors in special teaching positions for 1952-1953 or parts of the year:

FRANZ KLINE Visiting instructor in Painting and Drawing

KAREN KARNES Resident Ceramist

Alfred University, B.F.A.; graduate work and assistant instructor, Alfred University.

Worked at the Design-Technic Pottery, Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania; winner in Syracuse show; studied in Italy for one year.

Black Mountain College since summer, 1952.